

Energy Smart Mediterranean Schools Network

ESMES project addresses growing energy demand, fossil fuel dependence and increasing CO<sub>2</sub> emissions in the Mediterranean area through fostering renewable energies and reducing energy use, with the common perspective of adapting to climate conditions and finding innovative, effective ways of optimizing renovation investments

5

Public institutions with enhanced capacity

10

Public schools with optimized energy consumption

120000

People with improved energy habits